Dear Parents and Carers

Temperatures are predicted to reach 38 degrees Celsius again tomorrow.

We continue to undertake risk assessments to keep children and staff safe. Our site is south facing and our building extensively glazed. The temperature inside the building is therefore likely to exceed that outdoors. The age of the children attending our site makes them particularly vulnerable to heat and guidance only allows them to access our gardens for short periods of time.

In addition to today's half day closure, we will be closing the school to all children on Tuesday 19th July at 12:30pm. Please ensure your child is collected no later than this time. Naturally, fee paying families will be refunded the afternoon charge.

We know this causes inconvenience however; we really have no other option in these circumstances.

Please consult the guidance we have been issuing in recent days to ensure you and your family remain safe in these unusual conditions.

Yours Faithfully

David Aldworth

Executive Head Teacher
